

Wofford College National Alumni Executive Council, 2016

The Wofford College National Alumni Association consists of nearly 15,500 persons who attended Wofford for one year or more. The association is organized to stimulate a permanent and informed interest among all alumni in the work of the college, encourage financial and moral support of the college, perpetuate the friendships formed in the college years, and promote the cause of Christian higher education.

The governance of The National Alumni Association is provided by the Alumni Executive Council (AEC). The AEC includes 22 individuals appointed to three-year terms and meeting twice a year. Members of the AEC for 2015 are identified below. The beginning date for individual terms of service is noted in parenthesis following the members' names.

In addition to the elected members, ex-officio members include the chairman of the Wofford College Board of Trustees, the president of the college, the officers of the development staff, the director of the alumni and parents associations, director of alumni and parents programs, the president of the Terrier Club (the fund-raising organization for athletics), and the chairperson of the National Annual Fund (the annual giving program for the College).
