In order to earn a major in Chinese, students must complete the required courses, either the Culture Track or the Language Track, and the study abroad requirement. The Chinese Major, Culture Track requires 33 credit hours while the Chinese Major, Language Track requires 35 credit hours. Students who complete CHIN 101 Beginning Active Chinese and CHIN 102 Beginning Active Chinese as first-year students are strongly encouraged to pursue the Language Track.

Students majoring in Chinese are required to complete a semester of study abroad in a country where the Chinese language is spoken, taking a majority of courses in Chinese in a program approved by the language coordinator. In rare instances, exceptions to this policy may be granted at the discretion of the faculty of the program through a waiver process administered by the coordinator of the Chinese program and in consultation with the department chair.
